Letter from G. W. Wells Esq., I.C.S., Collector of South Kanara, DDis. No.5362-22-V.2 dated th 10th April 1923.

Two of the Divisional officers in the district are of opinion that the post of Muchi in their own offices as well as in the taluk offices under their control cannot be abolished without detriment to work. I agree with them and recommend that the proposal to abolish these posts may be abandoned

The Correspondence was started with copy of Memo: 13 dated No. 2298 Rev. 21-9-20 (I)

As regards the abolition of the second Shroff's posts in Udipi and Uppinangadi taluk offices a copy of the detailed report from M.R.Ry. A. K. Govindan Avl., Deputy Collector on special duty for inspection of sub-treasuries is submitted herewith. For the reasons stated therein, I consider that the second shroff's post in Udipi cannot be abolished permanently and recommend that the second shroff's post in Uppinangadi be abolished permanently and that a temporary 2nd shroff be employed during the kist months.

Report from M.R.Ry. A. K.Govindan Avl., B.A., Deputy Collector on inspection of sub-treasuries, Mangalore, to the Collector of South Kanara, No. D.Dis. 4-23-Spl., dated the 25th March 1923.

Your D.Dis. No. 4101 -22-V.2, dated 1st August 1922. Retention or abolition- Second shroff- Udipi and Puttur sub treasuries.

During the inspection of the sub-treasuri Puttur and Udipi, I carefully examined the work of the shroffs in both of them. I enclose two statements obtained by me from the respective sub-treasuries showing the receipts and charges during the years 1919-20, 1920-21 and 1921-22 and two statements showing the transactions in stamps during the same period (Statements A to D.) It will be seen therefrom that the work in the Puttur Sub-Treasury is heavy enough. Most of the time of the shroff is taken up in receiving and disbursing monies. Besides this he has to attend to the work connected with the deposit and issue of stamps which is heavier than in other sub-treasuries (except Udipi) because there are transactions in postage stamps also here. In addition to these duties, there are a lot of registers to be maintained and returns to be submitted by the shroff. With the assistance of other clerks, the Head Shroff, who is now alone owing to the temporary abolition of the post of second shroff, has been managing to attend to all this work for the last one year with some difficulty. ~~Though~~ Though the work is heavy, I do not think it is more than one shroff can manage. The Tahsildar was telling me that he had much difficulty in carrying on the work especially when the shroff is absent for some days together, as for instance, when he accompanies a remittance. He added that the Collector has now permitted him to employ a second shroff temporarily on such occasions. In these circumstances, I consider that one shroff should be able to manage the work as he has been during the past one year, and that the place of second shroff may now be permanently abolished.

2. As I have indicated above, the quantity of work the Puttur shroff has to do is practically the limit which cannot be overstamped without committing mistakes which especially in money transactions it is safe to avoid. The enclosed statements of receipts and charges (statements A & B) will show that money transactions in the Udipi Sub Treasury are much heavier than in the Puttur Sub-Treasury. Statements C & D will show that transactions in stamps are also considerably heavier. Moreover, Udipi is an important trade centre and a port and there is heavy exchange work for the shroff to attend to. Transactions with the Post Office under letters of credit are also much heavier in this Sub-Treasury. I have found that owing to the heaviness of the transactions the Sub.Teasury has been closing more often than not after sunset. I have instructed the Head Accountant to make every possible effort to have the treasury closed before sunset. But in any case, the work is obviously too heavy for one shroff to handle and I think it highly desirable that the second shroff should be retained in this sub-treasury.

recommends that the post of the second shroff in Uppinangadi Taluk office may be abolished and that a temporary shroff may be appointed during the kist months. The Board agrees with the Collector and recommends that the post may be abolished permanently. Effect will be given to the sanction on receipt of the orders of Government.
